

April Kids Week

TUESDAY THROUGH FRIDAY

April 16 through 19

9:30 am to 5 pm

LAST ADMISSION AT 4:30

SPONSORED BY

THE EDGAR & PAULINE MAIN FAMILY FOUNDATION

FREE MUSEUM ADMISSION FOR ALL

with daily TREASURE HUNTS for kids and special programs for young learners and families!

We're part of SPRING WEEK with free museum visits all week across the Commonwealth!

APRIL 18TH
FREE DAY

Sponsored by the
HIGHLAND STREET
FOUNDATION

TUESDAY, APRIL 16TH

2 pm • Life at Sea with David Coffin

Encounter the voices of sailors, whalers, and fishermen with music educator David Coffin in a participatory program that reveals the life they pursued at sea. Sing along on a shanty (work song) as you learn to

- "HOIST" THE SAILS • "HAUL" ON THE LINES,
- and STAMP AROUND THE CAPSTAN!

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17TH

11 am • Honeycomb in a Pot

HERRING POND WAMPANOAG FAMILY WORKSHOP FOR EARTH DAY

Create a colorful Earth Day-themed artwork to take home in this family workshop presented by Herring Pond Wampanoag Tribal Members and local artists from the Community Arts Collaborative.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17TH

1-4 pm • Wampanoag Workshops

WAMPUM PENDANT MAKING WITH DARIUS COOMBS
Learn about the ancient tradition of wampum making & make your own pendant to bring home!

CORNHUSK DOLL MAKING WITH ELEANOR COOMBS

Learn about corn in Wampanoag life & the artistry of doll making as you craft a cornhusk doll to take home.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18TH

11 am • A Sea Story

CHARLOTTE ANNE DORE, ROSALITA'S PUPPET SHOW
Travel under the sea with Miranda the mermaid as she encounters sea creatures, pirates and even Pinocchio in an adventurous marionette show, ideal for all ages.

1 pm • Stories Alive with Judith Black

One of the nation's foremost storytellers, Judith Black tells compelling, humorous, and riveting original stories.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19TH

11 am • Story Time with Andrea Kamens

Boston-based storyteller and art specialist Andrea Kamens weaves magic in a diverse range of tales that resonate with young and old.

1 pm • Whales, Octopi & Sharks

JACKSON GILLMAN, THE STAND UP CHAMELEON
Storyteller Jackson Gillman brings the world of coastal wonders and sea creatures alive with humor, tales and songs for all ages.

Pilgrim Hall Museum
75 Court Street
Plymouth MA 02360
www.pilgrimhall.org